

Memphis Guild of Handloom Weavers

Pattern Potluck

A weavers' choice round-robin workshop

Saturday & Sunday, February 22 & 23, 2020

Angela Schneider, facilitator and host

Anything goes in this round-robin workshop! Weavers bring a loom prepared with a pattern of their own choice. Cloth can be your specialty, something you've learned at another workshop and want to share, or something you are currently exploring. Any loom type is allowed: 4 shaft, 8 shaft, rigid heddle, inkle, etc. Drafts are not assigned – select your own and set up enough warp for 13 samples (one per person plus one for a guild notebook). Participants must pre-register and submit their draft prior to the workshop so it can be put into a standard format and copied.

We instruct each other! There is no class fee, but there is a small materials fee to cover copies for the notebooks (bring a binder). Participants provide the yarns for their loom.

Registration deadline and drafts due Saturday, February 1, 2020 – but send it in as soon as you've decided. We'll keep a running tally of the drafts that are coming in.

Class limit 12.

Materials fee $10
